Exploration of Flight provides one of the most unique event experiences in Denver’s South Metro Area. Situated on an active flight ramp on the south side of Centennial Airport in Englewood, Colorado, the hangar offers over 9,000 square feet of indoor floor space and 10,000 square feet of flexible tarmac space surrounded by an ambiance that can only be found at one of the nation’s busiest general aviation airports.

From a casual meeting for 20 to a formal celebration for over 300, your guests are sure to have a special time whether inside the hangar or on the ramp.
